To Whom It May Concern:

It is with great pleasure that we recommend Adam Baker and We've Got It Wired. He has worked with our company for over eight years.

Adam has always displayed a high degree of integrity, responsibility, and ambition. His good judgment and years of experience ensure a logical and practical approach to his endeavors.

When our organization first contracted Adam, we had only three employees. We now have a staff of twenty. Adam has aided our growth by facilitating additional installation and rewiring where needed. He has always made himself available for troubleshooting assistance and upgrading support in a timely fashion.

Adam would be an asset to any organization, and we at Newman's Own Organics are happy to give him our endorsement.

Sincerely,

Peter Meehan, CEO
